Strategic/content related eligibility and scoring contains on one hand compliance to strategic/content related eligibility criteria (I.). On the other hand it contains a scoring against relevant content-related scoring criteria (II.). If the application receives a No assessment at any of the below listed strategic/content related eligibility criteria (I.), then the application is rejected without further assessment.

Following compliance to the strategic content related eligibility criteria a scoring is carried out (II.). For approval of an Application it should reach at least 4 points, Maximum 55 points can be reached in the scoring. No minimum threshold is set in terms of scores.

Applications are ranked based on their average scores, and will be approved up to the available budget.

Experts can raise questions during the assessment of the application. The questions are forwarded to the email address of the applicant included in the application form by the Implementing Agency. The questions shall be answered by the deadline included in the email letter with the questions. If the applicant fails to answer the questions or the answers are not adequate then the assessment of the project is carried out based on the existing information.

Based on the scores of the two experts the average score of the application is determined. If the scores given by the two independent experts differs by more than 30% then a third expert reviews the application. The final score of the application is the average of the two scores closest to each other.

The Programme Operator sends a project contract offer to the supported project applicants, in which the PO details the conditions for signing the project contract. If these conditions cannot be met by the applicant by the given deadline the support decision is withdrawn and the next application on the project reserve list receives a project contract offer.

The Programme Operator builds a reserve list for eligible and scored applications that cannot be supported because of the ceiling of the financial allocation.
